

You should be supporting XM in everything they do. They are the future of radio. There is nothing else out there worth listening to, other than a few public-support stations. You have done everything possible to destroy radio by preventing it from growing and innovating--Its time you see the writing on the wall. Stop harassing XM.